

JavaScript Assignment 9

JavaScript Assignment 9

Question 1: Write a JavaScript Program to achieve encapsulation in Javascript. You can create a student class, define the getter and setter methods and print the properties created for the class.

Question 2: Write a JavaScript Program and create a class Vehicle. Create another class Bike which is the child class of the Vehicle class. Print Bike class properties and Parent class properties using Bike class constructor.

JavaScript Assignment 9

Question 3: Write a JavaScript Program using to create two classes that consist of a method with same name. Call both the methods and print the class names accordingly.

Question 4: Is it possible to create an instance of an abstract class? Create and program which has one function named Vehicle and throw appropriate error while calling the function using prototype based approach.